OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

First Reading: Ezekiel 34:11-12, 15-17
This passage beautifully describes how the Lord God, as shepherd, will tend his flock. He will rescue those who are lost, bring back those who stray, heal the sick, and "pasture" all.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:20-26, 28
Paul once again stresses the significance of Christ's resurrection in the total divine plan, emphasizing that Christ's rising means that those who believe in him will also rise after death. Christianity, he argues, is meaningless if it concerns only this life on earth. In the end, even death will be destroyed, and "God will be all in all."

Gospel: Matthew 25:31-46
With words both poetic and vivid, Jesus tells the disciples that since he is present in all people, whatever they do to "one of my least brothers" they do to him; and whatever they fail to do to his "least," they fail to do to him.

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

"Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry…thirsty…a stranger…naked…ill…in prison…" And then the righteous will answer him and say 'When?' And the king will say to them in reply, Whatever you did for one of the least of my brothers of mine, you did for me."

The picture of the final judgement is presented clearly and includes my standing before the judgement seat of God. How do I fare?

The corporal and spiritual works of mercy, trademarks of the church from the Acts of the Apostles until today, are the norms and requirements of all disciples of Jesus Christ. If I am truly honest, I know the Lord is asking and I am capable of doing more, especially when I admit my salvation depends upon it.

As I live this final week of the church year, as I share in the kingdom of Christ on this earth, I ask His help to make me more generous. Then the righteous will say…'thy kingdom come.'

34th Sunday in Ordinary Time
OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST KING of the UNIVERSE

"Since the announcement of his birth, the Only-Begotten Son of the Father, born of the Virgin Mary, was described as 'king' in the Messianic sense, that is, heir to the throne of David…for a Kingdom that would have no end. The kingship of Christ remained completely hidden until he was thirty years old, years spent in an ordinary life in Nazareth. Then, during his public life, Jesus inaugurated the new Kingdom which 'does not belong to this world,' and finally, with his death and Resurrection, he fully established it. Appearing to the apostles after he had risen, he said: 'Full authority has been given to me both in heaven and on earth.' This power flows from the love that God manifested in its fullness in the sacrifice of his Son. The Kingdom of Christ is a gift offered to the people of every epoch so that those who believe in the incarnate Word 'may not die but have eternal life'" (Pope Benedict XVI).

The King's Desire

Jesus needs nothing. He not only possesses God, but He is God. He is King of heaven and earth. At His name every knee bows in heaven, on earth, and under the earth. All creation intones unceasingly that canticle of the Apocalypse: Blessing and honor and glory and power, through endless ages, to Him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb (Rv 5:13). But if Jesus possesses everything in heaven, much is lacking to Him upon earth because the desires of His heart are not satisfied. What is it that He desires? To complete His mystical body, to reach the fullness of His stature (Eph 4:13). He desires that souls be united with Him, live His life, and adapt themselves to His sentiments so that He may present them to His heavenly Father as the trophy of His victory for the glory of the Father and the sanctification of souls…. Never in the heart of any warrior has there been the unbounded aspiration that consumes the Heart of Jesus—His burning desire to save and sanctify all men. What consolation for Him if each one of us would say: "Lord, I have caught a glimpse of Your divine enterprise, and here I am to help You. Since souls may be purified and saved by suffering, I wish to be a victim with You, the Supreme Victim. Henceforth Your destiny will be my destiny. I wish that the same lance transfix Your heart and mine, that the same thorns pierce both hearts, and that one and the same cross surmount them. Here I am. In all my smallness unite myself to You in your colossal enterprise of saving the world."

ADVENT BIBLE STUDY

Begins this Tuesday, November 24 at 6:30 PM in the Parish Center.
Contact Clare Crone: ccrone2@gmail.com or the Parish Office 717-334-2510.
This Advent Study will be from Fr. John Nepil's book, ILLUMINATE based on the Gospel of John by Ave Maria Press.Books/Folders/Handouts will be $10.
"Advent is a journey into darkness. It is a liturgical reflection upon a planet's ever-so-gentle tilt away from the sun. The climactic moment, known as the winter solstice, is the celebration not simply of the presence of darkness but of the coming of the light. It was not a coincidence, nor pagan appropriation, that settled the festivity of Christmas on the short day of midwinter; it was the reality of the light, manifested fully and anew in the revelation of the God. "This is the message we have heard from Him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in Him is no darkness at all" (1 John 12:46)

THANKSGIVING DAY!

In all circumstances give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus. (1 Thes 5:18)
The original harvest festival of Thanksgiving has grown over the years into a great national day of thanks for all the good God has done for us as individuals and as a nation. One of the greatest gifts we celebrate on this day is the freedom to give thanks in public worship.

A Day of Thanksgiving and Prayer

The American people have always abundant cause to be thankful to Almighty God, whose watchful care and guiding hand have been manifested in every stage of their national life, guarding and protecting them in time of peril and safely leading them in the hour of darkness and of danger. It is fitting and proper that a nation thus favored should on one day in every year, for that purpose especially appointed, publicly acknowledge the goodness of God and return thanks to him for all his gracious gifts
