Parish Advocate Needed: The Diocesan Office of Ministry with People with Disabilities administers a Parish Advocacy Program to support parishes in responding to the gifts and needs of their parishioners living with disabilities, including their families and caregivers. Our parish is currently seeking a volunteer to serve as our Parish Advocate. The Parish Advocate is a parishioner, chosen by our Pastor, who assists him in working for and with parishioners with disabilities. In consultation with the Pastor, the Advocate identifies persons with disabilities and their families, assesses the needs and gifts of those parishioners and works toward elimination of barriers to pursue their full participation in the life of the parish. There are no mandatory qualifications for volunteering; candidates should have a “heart” for people with disabilities and be eager to welcome, include and work with these parishioners and their families. The Advocate will become part of the Diocesan network of Advocates and will receive support from the Diocesan Office of Ministry with People with Disabilities. Interested volunteers should contact Fr. Benny or the parish office at their earliest convenience.
