ST. JOSEPH THE WORKER CHURCH MISSION STATEMENT

We, the members of this Christian Catholic Community of St. Joseph the Worker Church in Bonneauville, Pennsylvania, endeavor to live the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ and practice the teachings of that same Gospel in our worship, our beliefs, what we learn, and the way in which we serve others.

As a Catholic Community of Faith, Hope, & Love, we invite others to join us in our goal of renewal, and welcome them into our gospel fellowship.

IS ANYONE SICK AMONG YOU?

Please notify Fr. Benny or Deacon Weaver of any parishioner admitted to the hospital. If confined at home and desiring to receive Communion, contact Bob Funari at 334-5737 or call the Parish Office. Call the Office to arrange for the Anointing of the Sick.

CCD Summer News!

- Last week in the Bulletin, Blessing for Going on a Vacation was the theme.
- This week the focus will be on Blessing for Going on a RETREAT!
- Blessing for Going on a RETREAT - Jesus said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." (Mk 6:31)
- What is the difference between going on a VACATION and going on a RETREAT!
- Summer time provides many opportunities for all of us to "Come away by yourselves" as Jesus suggests to us! We are looking for rest, relaxation, fun, and get away from the everyday humdrum of our lives. But sometimes vacations, can leave us more exhausted, tired, and penniless than we began.
- Consider a Spiritual Retreat or get away. The focus of a retreat is your encounter with God. Generally, this requires spending some time being quiet, still, and receptive to God's presence. A good retreat is about more than relaxing (or sleeping)—it's about encountering God, and allowing God to work in you during that encounter.
- Try a Spiritual time away by yourself, or even with your family. You may be pleasantly surprised at how refreshed you may feel coming back!
- Registration for the CCD School Year will begin the beginning of August!
- Contact: Clare Crone, CCD Coordinator, ccronecrestjoe@gmail.com

Sometimes people de-supernaturalize John 6:1-15 with explanations such as: "The real miracle is that Jesus got the people to share the food they had brought with them", and even this: "There wasn't enough food for everyone to have their fill, but what they had was offered to everyone, and the people were just so appreciative and willing to make sacrifices that they ate very little and thus there was food left over."

Yeah, r-i-i-ight. As if God can't multiply food miraculously.

The multiplication of the loaves and fish into a meal that not only satisfied everyone but was more than what they needed is an important foreshadowing of the Eucharistic banquet we celebrate today. If we pay close attention to what's going on in Mass, and if we take it to heart, Jesus satisfies our hungers and gives us more than we need. What did you need from him before you arrived at church? He's trying to give it to you or lead you to it -- in abundance!

Receiving all that he wants to miraculously give us requires that we trust him to provide for us. We have to expect the unexpected. We have to wait on his perfect timing. But rest assured that he wants to give us more than we need.

Maybe some of the folks on that ancient hillside wanted steak instead of fish, but what they received was a Messiah who filled their hearts with more than enough faith to grow spiritually, more than enough hope to become stronger in their trials, and more than enough love to share as they went forth to reveal Christ to others.

In our Liturgies of the Eucharist, there's a lot more abundance to receive from Jesus than just a little wafer of his Body and a sip of his Blood. What do you really need from Jesus? More faith? More hope? More love? It's a good idea to think about this on the way to Mass so that you can participate in Mass more expectantly.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. Why do you go to Mass? Was there ever a time when you didn't go, and if so, why didn't you? What motivated you to start attending Mass again?
2. How satisfied are you now? What's missing? How might God provide for those needs?
3. What is available from Jesus during Mass other than his real presence in the Host and Precious Blood of the Eucharist?
4. How are the various elements of Mass gifts from God that can help satisfy our spiritual, emotional, and even physical needs?
