ST. JOSEPH THE WORKER CHURCH

MISSION STATEMENT

We, the members of this Christian Catholic Community of St. Joseph the Worker Church in Bonneauville, Pennsylvania, endeavor to live the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ and practice the teachings of that same Gospel in our worship, our beliefs, what we learn, and the way in which we serve others.

As a Catholic Community of Faith, Hope, & Love, we invite others to join us in our goal of renewal, and welcome them into our gospel fellowship.

IS ANYONE SICK AMONG YOU?

Please notify Fr. Benny 717-334-2510 or Deacon Weaver 717-353-0277 of any parishioner admitted to the hospital. If confined at home and desiring to receive Communion, contact Bob Funari at 717-334-5737 or call the Parish Office 717-334-2510. Call the Office to arrange for the Anointing of the Sick 717-334-2510.

Catechetical Sunday- Sept 20, 2020

“I Received from the Lord what I also

Handed on to You” (1 Cor 11:23)

The theme focuses on the primary substance of catechesis, which is an invitation to a whole new life given by Christ Himself. It emphasizes that living faith necessitates movement, inspiring all those who hear the Word to share it as witnesses of the true and living God.

Catechetical Sunday is an opportunity for all to rededicate themselves to this mission as a community of faith. It is about handing on the precious Deposit of Faith, which has its source in God and comes to us through Scripture and Tradition. This Deposit of Faith is safeguarded and handed on to us through the magisterium of the Church. The Catechist, whether a parish/school Catechist, or a Catechist to children or adults, has an essential role in “breaking open” this Deposit and making it accessible to the children he/she teaches, while at the same time presenting the beautiful riches of the Catholic Faith organically and systematically in, as St. John Paul II wrote, “all its rigor and vigor”. What a beautiful and exalted role they have who are called by God to teach the Faith!

St Therese the Little Flower Prayer

This Sunday's readings all speak of the need to stand up for what is holy and right and true in a way that invites others to turn away from sin. If we don't, we indirectly play a part in the sins he or she commits, and we will be held accountable (see the first reading).

If we do take a stand against sin but without compassion and mercy and unconditional love, that too is a sin (the second reading).

Jesus shows us in the Gospel reading that in our efforts to stop a fellow Christian from sinning, it's important to rely on our Christian community for advocacy and prayer support.

How?

First, we speak to the sinner. When we know that someone is harming himself and others (all sins are harmful even when we can't see the harm), if we don't try to impart this knowledge to him or her at least once, our silence is unloving and uncaring.

Once we've shared the truth, even if the sinner does not change, we're free of any guilt. But we must not stop trying, and so we take one or two others with us in a stronger effort to help the sinner understand and repent.

And if that fails, we try again with still more backing.

When every attempt to help someone has failed, only then do we quit. In reality, it's not us who's walking away. The sinner is the one who has chosen the path of separation. However, remember how Jesus treated the Gentiles and tax collectors (i.e., the outsiders, the separated ones): He never stopped loving them. He still chose to die for them.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. Whose sins have greatly disturbed you lately?
2. What have you done about it? How loving and caring have you been while handling it?
3. What bothers you about the way some people have pointed out your sins or the sins of others? How could they have been more compassionate?
4. Share the story of a time when someone successfully led another into repentance and growth. Explain why the effort was effective.
