COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED (ALL SOULS' DAY)

First Reading: Wisdom 3:1-9

Those who left this earth before us are at peace, in the hands of God. The Lord is their King forever, and His grace, mercy and love are with His elect.

Second Reading: Romans 5:5-11

Rejoice in our Lord Jesus Christ! For through His death and resurrection we have been reconciled and shall have eternal life. By the power of the Holy Spirit God has given us hope, and hope does not disappoint.

Gospel: John 6:37-40

Jesus calls Himself the Bread of God, the giver of life to the world. True bread from heaven, not the manna Moses fed his people in the desert. Through the Eucharist we remember, celebrate and believe. All who believe in Him will have eternal life, and the Father will raise them up on the last day.

First Friday Adoration

8:00 AM – Mass

8:30 AM – Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament

3:00 PM – Divine Mercy Chaplet, followed by Benediction

THE COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED (ALL SOULS' DAY)

“When the Lord saw her he was moved with pity for her and said ‘Do not weep’. And he said ‘Young man, I tell you arise’. The dead man sat up and began to speak and Jesus gave him to his mother. Fear seized them all, and they glorified God saying, ‘a great prophet has arisen in our midst’ and ‘God has visited his people.’”

The scriptures tell us that it is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead. In the Creed we state that we believe in the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and the life of the world to come. This weekend calls our attention to our mortality, our destiny, and also our task, to pray for those who have died, that they may know the forgiveness of our God and enjoy His presence in heaven. We do not simply recall who they were or what they accomplished but ask the loving God to take them to Himself.

Our prayer can be ‘we seem to give them back to you O Lord, who gave them to us...’

Faith Formation News

Nov 2, 2025 ALL SOULS DAY

"I would go so far as to say that if there was no purgatory, then we would have to invent it, for who would dare say of himself that he was able to stand directly before God? And yet we don't want to be, to use an image from Scripture, 'a pot that turned out wrong,' that has to be thrown away; we want to be able to be put right. Purgatory basically means that God can put the pieces back together again. That he can cleanse us in such a way that we are able to be with him and can stand there in the fullness of life. Purgatory strips off from one person what is unbearable and from another the inability to bear certain things, so that in each of them a pure heart is revealed, and we can see that we all belong together in one enormous symphony of being." - Pope Benedict XVI

"Eternal Father I offer you the most precious blood of your divine son Jesus, in union with all the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the holy souls in purgatory, for sinners everywhere, sinners in the Universal Church, those in my own home and within my family. Amen."

PILGRIMS of HOPE

The Jubilee Year of HOPE will end January 6, 2026, the Solemnity of the Epiphany. There is still time to receive the special blessings and indulgences that are available to the faithful. For the next few months, there will be reflections of HOPE in the bulletin.

Take advantage of this special Grace we have been given in being Pilgrims of Hope. (All excerpts/reflections/Colloquys (prayers) are taken from DIVINE INTIMACY: Meditations on the Interior Life for Every Day of the Liturgical Year by Father Gabriel of St. Mary Magdalen, O.C.D.)

COLLOQUY "Clothe me, O God, with the green garment of HOPE. A living Hope in You gives the soul such ardor, so much courage and longing for the things of eternal life that, by comparison with what it hopes for, all things of the world seem to it to be, as in truth they are dry, faded, dead, and without value. Give me then, a strong Hope, O my God, so that it may strip me of all the vanities of the world, that I may not set my heart upon anything that is in the world, nor hope for anything, but live clad only in the hope of eternal life. Let Hope be the helmet of salvation which will protect my head from the wounds of the enemy, and will direct my gaze to heaven allowing me to fix my eyes on You alone, my God. As the eyes of the handmaid are set upon the hands of her mistress, even so are my eyes set upon You, until You take pity on me because of my hope. Grant that I may set my eyes on naught but You, nor be pleased with aught but You alone. Then You will be pleased with me, and I shall be able to say in all truth that I receive from You as much as I hope for" (St. John of the Cross) "In order to understand the greatness of Your divinity, O Lord, I need faith; and in order to accomplish anything, I need Hope, for if I did not have Hope of possessing You some day, I would not have the strength to labor here below. I no longer desire the things of earth, although I have never hoped in them. I do have a lively Hope of obtaining, not the things of earth upon which worldly people usually set their hopes, but only You, my God.

"O God, give me a firm Hope, for I cannot be saved unless this virtue is firmly rooted in my soul. I need it in order to implore pardon for my sins and to attain my end. What delight Hope gives to my soul, making it hope for what it will one day enjoy in heaven, and by permitting it a partial taste here on earth of what it will savor, understand, and possess eternally, which is You, my God" (St. Mary Magdalen dei Pazzi)
