THE MOST HOLY BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST (CORPUS CHRISTI) ✕ JUNE 7, 2026

ST. JOSEPH THE WORKER CHURCH MISSION STATEMENT

We, the members of this Christian Catholic Community of St. Joseph the Worker Church in Bonneauville, Pennsylvania, endeavor to live the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ and practice the teachings of that same Gospel in our worship, our beliefs, what we learn, and the way in which we serve others.

As a Catholic Community of Faith, Hope, & Love, we invite others to join us in our goal of renewal and welcome them into our gospel fellowship.

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST (CORPUS CHRISTI)

First Reading: Deuteronomy 8:2-3, 14b-16a

Moses reminds the Israelites that when they were starving in the desert, the Lord fed them with "manna" -- a food not known to them.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 10:16-17

Paul points out to the Corinthians that through the sharing of the cup and the breaking of the bread, they are all one in Christ Jesus.

Gospel: John 6:51-58

After Jesus feeds the five thousand people with barley loaves and fishes, he tries to make them understand the significance and the meaning of what he has done. He tells them, in mysterious and beautiful words, that the bread he gives is his flesh and says, "I myself am the living bread... If anyone eats this bread, he shall live forever."

Parish office news:

The parish office will be closed on June 10th, June 11th and June 12th.

THE MOST HOLY BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST (CORPUS CHRISTI)

“Jesus said to the Jewish crowds: I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world... Jesus said to them, Amen, amen, I say to you unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood; you do not have life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day.”

The great gift of the Father was to send the Son. The great gift of the Son was to remain with us in the gift of His Body and Blood. What makes us who we are is that we are a Eucharistic people. We draw our life from Jesus present in the sacrament of His Body and Blood. How careful we must be to recognize this great gift, Jesus present to feed, Jesus present to receive my praise and adoration, Jesus present to unite myself and others in com-union.

There are many types and varieties of bread. There is rye and white bread, there is sourdough and raisin bread, there is French and Italian bread but there is only one Living Bread. Using the Old Testament expression, ‘I am’, Jesus tells us where we can find Him, in the Eucharist. ‘The Body of Christ’ ‘Amen.’

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi)
“In Memory of Me”

This gift [of the Eucharist] has such a likeness to the giver that the one giving himself is and is held completely in it. So he says, Do this in remembrance of me. And the Apostle says, As often as you eat this bread and drink this chalice, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes. For this reason, this gift is also called a memorial of the going of the Lord, because in it there is a remembrance and re-presentation of the Lord.... Now, there are three things which this sacrament causes to be remembered: namely, the sweetest charity, with which he who is received in this sacrament laid down his life for us and gave himself to us in this sacrament; the most bitter Passion, which he endured for us; and his passing forth from this world to the Father, through which he made an entry for us into heaven and accomplished our reconciliation with the Father. About the first it is said...His remembrance shall be sweet as honey in every mouth, and as music at a banquet of wine (Sir 49:1). For this melody is music in jubilation of heart, and the wine of the mouth for returning love, [wine] both inflaming with the affection of love and drawing the beloved to us in the embrace of intimate communion, which embrace has two arms, since he suffered for us out of love, and out of love for us gave himself in the sacrament....It is also a memorial of the most bitter Passion, which he endured for us.... Keep me in remembrance, and let us decide together, tell if you have anything to justify yourself (Is 43:26). As if to say, compare your sufferings in sorrow and your poverty and bitterness to mine, and consider me, God, owing nothing to anyone, in comparison to you, man, owing all compassion, and then tell if you have anything which can compare, and you will see that nothing is left to you but to love and give thanks....It is finally a memorial of the going forth of the Lord who says, If not, I would have told you, because I go to prepare a place for you. And so we celebrate the same sacrifice which he offered for us, since Jesus entered through his blood into the holy place for us, and we have entrance with him....Therefore, first, the memorial applies to love. Second, it builds up the truth of faith. Then third, it wonderfully raises us to the firmness of hope. *Saint Albert the Great († 1280) was a German Dominican priest and the teacher of Saint Thomas Aquinas. NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC PILGRIMAGE

Join the Movement “One Nation Under God”.

Walk with Jesus. Pray for the Nation. Follow the Journey.

The 2026 National Eucharistic Pilgrimage launches in St.

Augustine, Florida and sets out on a sacred journey up the East Coast through 18 dioceses, historic landmarks, and the heart of our nation. From May 24 through July 5, pilgrims will carry Jesus in the Eucharist from America’s oldest Catholic roots to Philadelphia for the 250th anniversary of our nation’s founding. This year’s theme, One Nation Under God, is more than a slogan. It’s a call to renewal. A call to prayer. A call to place our country once again under the sovereignty of Christ. As perpetual pilgrims walk with the Blessed Sacrament from Memorial Day to Independence Day, Catholics across the country are invited to join in person or in spirit through prayer, Eucharistic adoration, and sacrifice. This is not just an event. It’s a movement. An historic invitation to walk with Jesus, pray for our nation, and humbly place ourselves under the sovereignty of God. The road begins now. Will you walk with him? Go to <https://www.eucharisticpilgrimage.org> to learn more.

Join in Praying for Our Country and World

In honor of the 250th Anniversary of the founding of the United States of America, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) will formally consecrate our nation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus on Thursday, June 11, 2026, the Vigil of the Feast of the Sacred Heart, at the conclusion of their meeting in Orlando, FL. In preparation for this significant event, we invite you to join in praying the nationwide Novena to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, June 3 - 11. To access the daily Novena prayers, go to: <https://www.usccb.org/novena-sacred-heart-jesus> The USCCB has published the following prayer, to be said by Catholics across the country on the DAY OF (June 12) the Consecration:

O Most Sacred Heart of Jesus:

You know the longings of our hearts, and You desire that we enjoy friendship with You. From Your pierced side, You have poured out the wellspring of life, for which we thirst. Your Heart burns with a love for all people to return to a right relationship with You. We celebrate the abundant gifts You have given this nation, founded on the self-evident truths that our Creator has endowed all people with the right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness. We make reparation for the offenses against You and against human dignity that have taken place in this nation. May our hearts be united to Yours, so that our families and communities enjoy peace and happiness; may broken relationships be reconciled, injustices repaired, and the wounds of our land be healed. May Your holy Catholic Church serve as a sign, pointing all people to Your infinite love. O Desire of Nations and Center of History, we ask You to bless these United States of America. Who live and reign with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen. Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us! Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us!
