Seek Wisdom

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Wisdom 6:12-16
Regarded as personifying God's power, Wisdom is readily and easily found by those who seek her.

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18
The Thessalonians, who fear that those who have died will miss Christ's return, are comforted by Paul's assurance that those "who have died in Christ will rise first."

Gospel: Matthew 25:1-13
In the parable of the five sensible bridesmaids and the five foolish bridesmaids, Jesus emphasizes the fact that we must always be ready for the coming of Christ because in his words, "You know not the day or the hour."

New calendars for "2027" are available at both exits of the Church, Thank You to Feiser Funeral Home in New Oxford for sponsoring them for our parish.

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"We do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, about those who have fallen asleep, so that you may not grieve like the rest, who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose, so too will God, through Jesus, bring with him those who have fallen asleep,"

It is not that we are unaware, we prefer to ignore the topic altogether. In this month of November, as we reflect on the saints in glory and the souls in purgatory, how essential that we reflect upon our final destiny, and the words of Saint Paul, because we have no hope. He tells us, 'hope does not disappoint.'

May I live my daily life as a pilgrim leading me one day to my life with the Lord in eternal glory, not just struggling to make my way through daily drudgery, difficulty and passing joy. We are told 'eye has not seen, nor ear heard what God has waiting for those who love Him.'

Faith Formation News

November 8, 2026

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"The kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom." Why don't the five wise virgins share their oil with the five foolish ones? Because it represents our love for Christ. We cannot substitute someone else's personal union with Jesus for our own. Fortunately, such wisdom is not a secret commodity only attainable by a few, but is "readily perceived by those who love her, and found by those who seek her." If only the foolish virgins had remained and confessed, "Lord, Lord, we have been foolish. But we know that you yourself can be our light! Have mercy on us!" Jesus Christ, the Bridegroom, "with a word of command" can wake us up and take us to be with himself. If we bless him while we live and call upon his name, it will not be in vain.

Bride and Bridegroom

See, the bridegroom is coming. Go out to meet him…. The Bridegroom is Christ and human nature is the bride, whom God created according to his own image and likeness. In the beginning he placed his bride in the noblest and most beautiful, the richest and most luxuriant place on earth, that is, in Paradise. He subordinated all other creatures to her, adorned her with grace, and gave her a commandment so that through obedience to it she might deserve to be made firm and -steadfast with her Bridegroom in eternal faithfulness and so -never fall into any adversity or any sin. But then came an evildoer, the enemy from hell, who in his -jealousy -assumed the form of a cunning serpent and deceived the woman. They both then deceived the man…. Thus did the -enemy seduce human -nature, God's bride, through -deceitful counsel. Poor and -wretched, she was banished to a strange land and was there captured and oppressed and beset by her enemies in such a way that it seemed she would never be able to return to her homeland or attain reconciliation. But when it seemed to God that the right time had come and he took pity on his beloved in her suffering, he sent his only-begotten Son to earth into a -magnificent palace and a glorious temple, that is, into the body of the glorious Virgin Mary. There the Son wedded this bride, our nature, and united her with his own Person through the purest blood of the noble Virgin. The priest who witnessed the bride's marriage was the Holy Spirit. The Angel Gabriel brought the message. The glorious Virgin gave her consent. Thus did Christ, our faithful Bridegroom, unite our nature with himself. He came to us in a strange land and taught us through a heavenly way of life and with perfect -fidelity. He worked and struggled as our champion against our enemies, broke open the bars of our prison, won the struggle, vanquished our death through his own, -redeemed us through his blood, freed us through his water in baptism, and made us rich through his sacraments and his gifts, so that, as he says, we might go out with virtues, meet him in the palace of glory, and enjoy him forever in eternity. Blessed John of Ruusbroec († 1381), born near Brussels, was a priest and one of the Flemish mystics. / From The Spiritual Espousals and Other Works,

At the end of this month we begin a new Liturgical Calendar year, Year B.

In the month of November, the Liturgical calendar is packed full of Feast Days and Celebrations. Of course on Sundays we celebrate Jesus and the Resurrection and almost every single day we honor those who have gone before us. Plus the end of the month ADVENT begins! Rejoice! Prepare the way of the Lord in your hearts for His coming! This week in addition to ALL SAINTS and ALL SOULS, there is The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica; St. Leo the Great; St. Martinn of Tours; St. Josaphat; St. Frances Xavier Cabrini.

ADVENT BIBLE STUDY

Beginning Tuesday, November 24 at 6:30 PM in the Parish Center.

Contact Clare Crone: ccrone2@gmail.com or the Parish Office 717-334-2510.

This Advent Study will be from Fr. John Nepil's book, ILLUMINATE based on the Gospel of John by Ave Maria Press. Books/Folders/Handouts will be $10.

"Advent is a journey into darkness. It is a liturgical reflection upon a planet's ever-so-gentle tilt away from the sun. The climactic moment, known as the winter solstice, is the celebration not simply of the presence of darkness but of the coming of the light. It was not a coincidence, nor pagan appropriation, that settled the festivity of Christmas on the short day of midwinter; it was the reality of the light, manifested fully and anew in the revelation of the God. "This is the message we have heard from Him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in Him is no darkness at all" (1 John 12:46)
